

The Lord Is Coming

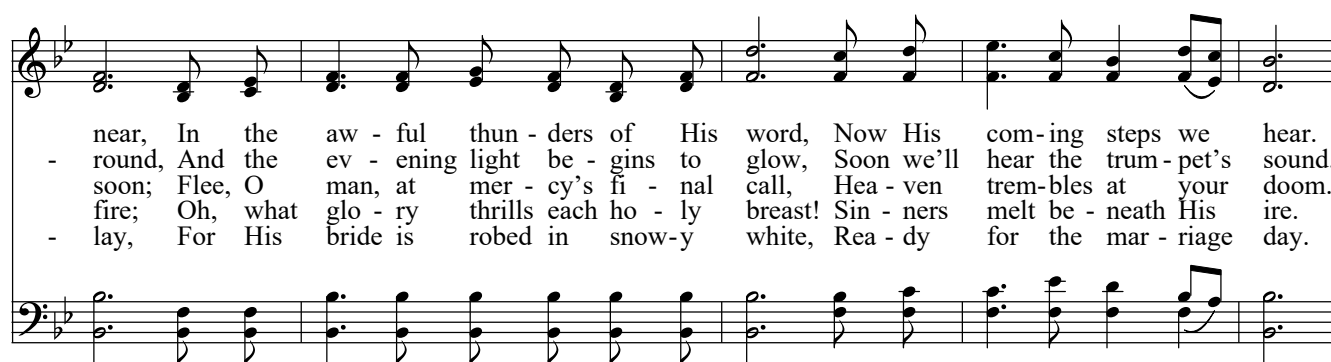

Daniel Sidney Warner, 1885

H. R. Jeffrey

$\text{♩} = 96$

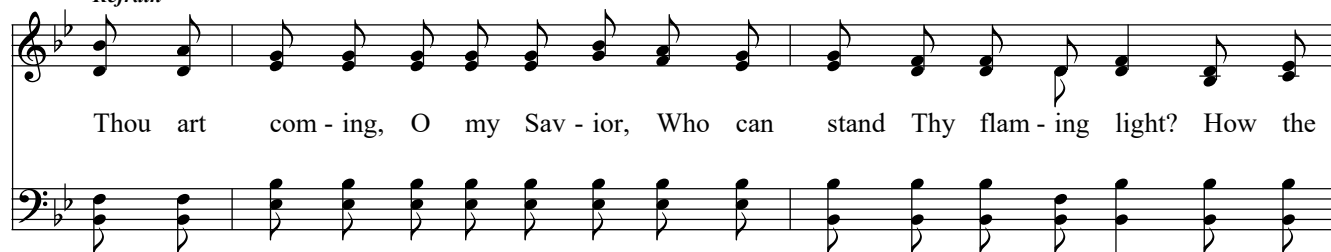

1. Are you rea - dy, wait - ing for the Lord? See, the signs pro - claim Him
 2. Now are ma - ny run - ning to and fro, Spread - ing ho - li - ness a -
 3. Hark! the sol - emn warn - ing un - to all, Judg - ment's com - ing, oh, how
 4. As the light - ning flash - es east and west, Comes the Lord in flam - ing
 5. Christ is com - ing, oh, the heav'n - ly sight! Our be - lov - ed can't de -

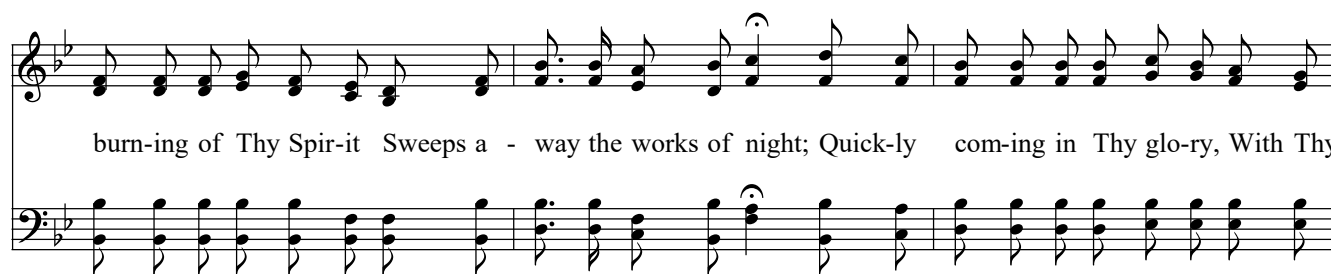

- near, In the aw - ful thun - ders of His word, Now His com - ing steps we hear.
 - round, And the ev - ening light be - gins to glow, Soon we'll hear the trum - pet's sound.
 soon; Flee, O man, at mer - cy's fi - nal call, Hea - ven trem - bles at your doom.
 fire; Oh, what glo - ry thrills each ho - ly breast! Sin - ners melt be - neath His ire.
 - lay, For His bride is robed in snow - y white, Rea - dy for the mar - riage day.

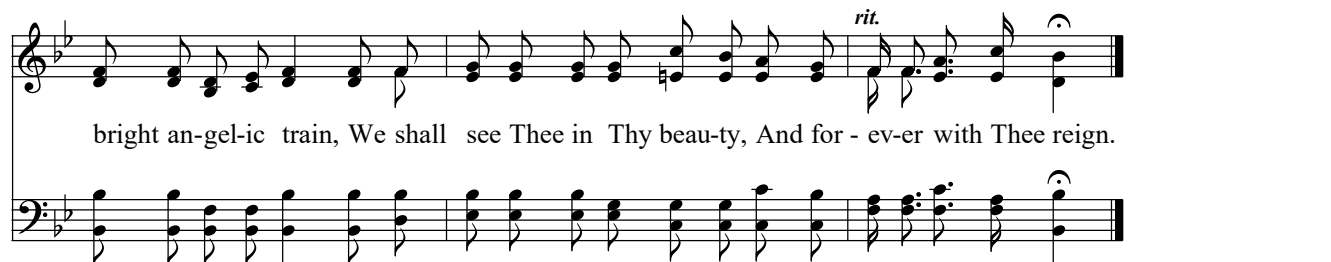

Refrain

Thou art com - ing, O my Sav - ior, Who can stand Thy flam - ing light? How the burn - ing of Thy Spir - it Sweeps a - way the works of night; Quick - ly com - ing in Thy glo - ry, With Thy bright an - gel - ic train, We shall see Thee in Thy beau - ty, And for - ev - er with Thee reign.