

Lord, What Wilt Thou Have Me to Do?

M. G. Danforth, 1874

Zimri Mullen Parvin

♩=105

1. I came un-to Him in the morn-ing, When the day was fresh and fair; "To-
2. I came in the ear - ly morn-ing, As the sun be - gan to shine, And
3. I came un-to Him in the seed-time When the spring was green and new, Say-
4. I came un-to Him in the seed-time, In the time of the burst-ing leaves, And

- day I will work in Thy vine-yard," Was my heart's out - gush - ing prayer.
- now, and now it is even-ing, And the fruit still bends the vine.
- ing, "I will sow with Thy serv-ants, For the la - borers are but few."
now, and now it is har - vest, And where, oh where are my sheaves?

What wilt Thou have me to do, Lord? Oh, what wilt Thou have me to do?
What have I done for Thee, Lord? Oh, what I have done for Thee?
What wilt Thou have me to do, Lord? Oh, what wilt Thou have me to do?
What have I done for Thee, Lord? Oh, what have I done for Thee?

What wilt Thou have me to do, Lord? Oh, what wilt Thou have me to do?
What have I done for Thee, Lord? Oh, what I have done for Thee?
What wilt Thou have me to do, Lord? Oh, what wilt Thou have me to do?
What have I done for Thee, Lord? Oh, what have I done for Thee?

