1. Birds are re - joic - ing, O'er hill and dell; Hushed is thy voic - ing,
2. Thou hast as - cend - ed, Where an - gels dwell; Where, earth songs end - ed,
3. Sal - va - tion's sto - ry Then thou wilt tell; Tri - umphs of glo - ry,
4. Safe from thee turn - ing, Grief's tones will knell; Hard, hard the learn - ing,

Sweet - er that fell. Friend of our hap - py days, Bro - ther of prayer and praise, Heav'n's an - thems swell. Safe, all the saints a - mong, Blest with the prais - ing throng, Thy voice shall swell. Rest thou, oh, friend so dear, Thy pre - cious Sav - ior near,
God do - eth well! Till, be it soon or late, Up, at the pearl - y gate,

Thine own sweet mu - sic says, Loved one, fare - well!
Sing - ing the new made songs, Loved one, fare - well!
Where God shall wipe each tear, Loved one, fare - well!
We meet, oh watch and wait, Loved one, fare - well!
