

Love Makes Our Toil Worthwhile

Eunice Whitfold, 1908

Edmund Simon Lorenz

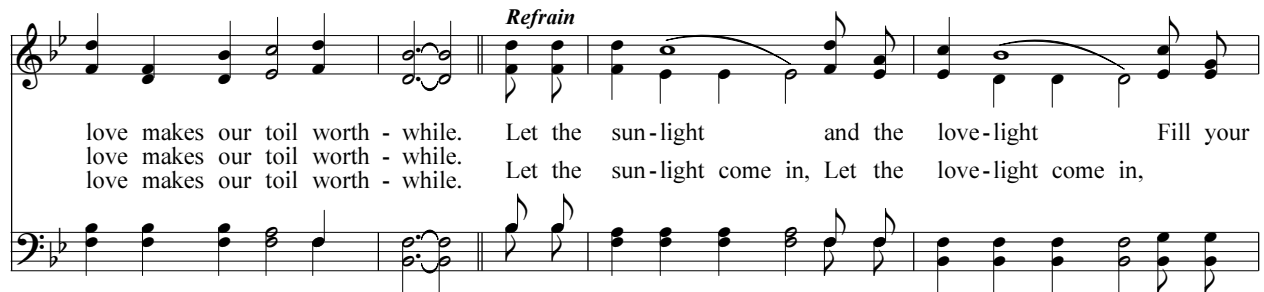

♩=125

1. O - pen wid-er the door of your heart to the light; Let the sun-shine of love make its
2. If your face is a - light with the sun - shine of love Then your soul will be filled with a 3. Learn to love men a - bout you, what - ev - er you learn, Find-ing no one too low - ly and cor - ners all bright; Let no self - ish de - sires bring the sha - dow of night, On - ly joy from a - bove; Ev - ery - where you'll find glad - ness, tho' wide - ly you rove; On - ly no one to spurn; Love will teach you to help them, their good to dis - cern, On - ly

Refrain love makes our toil worth - while. Let the sun-light and the love-light Fill your love makes our toil worth - while. Let the sun-light come in, Let the love-light come in, love makes our toil worth - while.

face with their glo - ry, With a bright, sun - ny smile; Bear your tri - als with pa - tience, Good cheer sure will win; On - ly love makes our toil worth - while!