

The Love of Christ Constraineth

Cora Berford Evans, ca. 1895

Edwin C. Soley, 1911

♩=113

1. The love of Christ con - strain-eth; O let the watch-word ring Till all the world a-2. The love of Christ con - strain-eth; And we who trust His Word, Who know and feel its
3. The love of Christ con - strain-eth; Then let us work and pray, And watch the glad ap-

- dor - ing To Je - sus' feet it bring. Till north and south the king-doms Shall pow - er To glad-der ser - vice stirred, Shall nei - ther faint nor fal - ter, Though
- pear - ing Of that tri - umph-al day, When Fa - ther, Son and Spir - it, By own His glor - ious sway, And east and west the na - tions Re - joice to see His dark the night and long, And weak our hands that la - bor; His strength shall make us ev - ery tongue con - fessed, All earth his broad do - min - ion In His dear love shall day.

Refrain

strong. The love of Christ con - strain-eth; O let the watch-word ring, Till all the world a-rest.

- dor - ing To Je - sus' feet it bring.

