

The Loyal Call

L. B. Kenyon, 1896

Mabel E. Place

$\text{♩} = 110$

1. A call to "loy-al work-ers" Is sound-ing o'er the land; A-
 2. The prize is life e-ter-nal, With Je-sus cru-ci-fied; 'Twas
 3. Come, "work-ers," look a-round you, The Mas-ter calls to-day; What-
 4. O loy-al be to Je-sus, In word and thought and deed; Then

- wake! A-rise! the time is short, The Lord, He is at hand! Take on the cross in a-go-ny, For us He bled and died; Then,
 - e'er thy hand shall find to do, Haste, now the call o-bey! Bear grand-ly will the work go on, Where "work-ers" sow the seed; Thro' up the cross for Je-sus, On Him fix heart and eyes, Then in His grace suf-work-ers, look to Je-sus, For help to o-ver-come, And then in that fair no-bly all for Je-sus, And in His strength a-bide, Then bless-ed be the Christ our bless-ed mas-ter, We vic-t'ry shall at-tain; Then in that morn so

f ff Refrain Faster
 - fi-cient Press for-ward to the prize.
 morn-ing He'll say to thee, "Well done."
 ef-forts To win for Him a bride. so-on, We'll reap the gold-en grain. A- wake! "loy-al work-er," To the f

 work while you may; In God's name to con-quer, He's call-ing to-day.