

Made Whole

John W. Beebe, 1890

William James Kirkpatrick

♩=92

1. The press was great, the throng was wild, And I, a sin - ner all de - filed, How
2. "Who touched Me?" hear the dear Lord say! The throng was awed, the mass gave way, And
3. "Thou se - est all these peo - ple, Lord, And yet Thou seek - est by Thy word To 4. "Go thou in peace," O hear Him say; "From all thy plague be healed this day"; Oh, could I reach my Sav - ior? Reach Him I must, with - out de - lay; And I stood near my Sav - ior; "Who touched Me?" came the gra - cious word; New find who touched Thee, Sav - ior?" 'Twas thus that His dis - ci - ples said, But what a bless - ed Sav - ior! To heal the bo - dy, save the soul, The

Refrain

in the press, with fear, dis - may, I, tremb - ling, sought my Sav - ior.
life-blood thro' my be - ing stirred, For I had touched my Sav - ior. His words were full of I be - fore Him bowed my head; I knelt be - fore my Sav - ior. His words are full of vil - est of the vile make whole, Oh, how I love my Sav - ior.

com - fort, They cheered my wea - ry soul; For I had touched His gar - ment, His grace had made me com - fort, Oh, how they cheer my soul! By faith I touch His gar - ment, He makes me clean and rit.

whole; For I had touched His gar - ment, His grace had made me whole.
whole; By faith I touch His gar - ment, He makes me clean and whole.