

The Manger-Babe

Salathiel Cleaver Kirk, 1904

Grant Colfax Tullar

♩ = 112

1. There's a man-ger - Babe in a far off land, But it holds the world in its in - fant
2. Just a man-ger - Babe, but it is the worth Of the Fa - ther's love to the sons of
3. 'Tis the man-ger - Babe, 'tis the man-ger - King, Un-to Him all hail! un-to Him we hand; Just a man-ger - Babe in its hum-ble bed, But a match-less crown is up - on its earth; 'Tis a King that sleeps in the low-ly stall, 'Tis the King of kings! 'tis the Lord of sing; O the glad and joy - ful ho - san - nas swell, For the man - ger - King is Im - man-u-head.

Refrain

all. O man - ger - Babe, Thy low - ly rest More roy - al is than
- el!

prince - ly bed; Best of earth's di - a - dems would be

On - ly as dross on Thy king - ly head.

