

A Message Sweet

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1898

J. Howard Entwisle

♩=95

1. A mes - sage sweet is borne to me On wings of joy di-vine; A wond-rous
2. I hear the mes - sage that I love When morn - ing dawns a - new; I read it 3. Oh, wond-rous grace for all man - kind, That spreads from sea to sea! It heals the mes - sage, glad and free, That thrills this heart of mine; I'm saved by grace, by grace a - in the sun a - bove That shines a - cross the blue; I hear it in the twi - light sick and leads the blind, And sets the prison-er free; The soul that seeks it can - not

- lone, Through Christ, whose love I claim, No o - ther could for sin a - still, And at the sun - set hour— I'm saved by grace! what words can fail To see the Sav - ior's face, And Sa - tan's power can - not pre-

Refrain
- tone, Ho - san - na to His name!
- thrill With such a ma - gic power? O glor - ious song that all day long With tune - ful note is
- vail If we are saved by grace.

ring - ing, I'm saved by grace, a - maz - ing grace, And that is why I'm sing - ing!