

The Mighty Conqueror

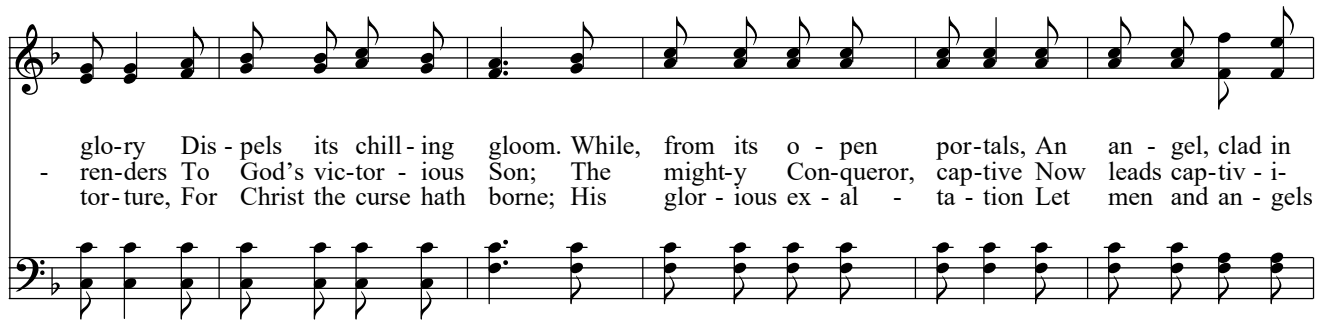

William Chambers Wilbor, 1885

Adam Geibel

♩ = 90

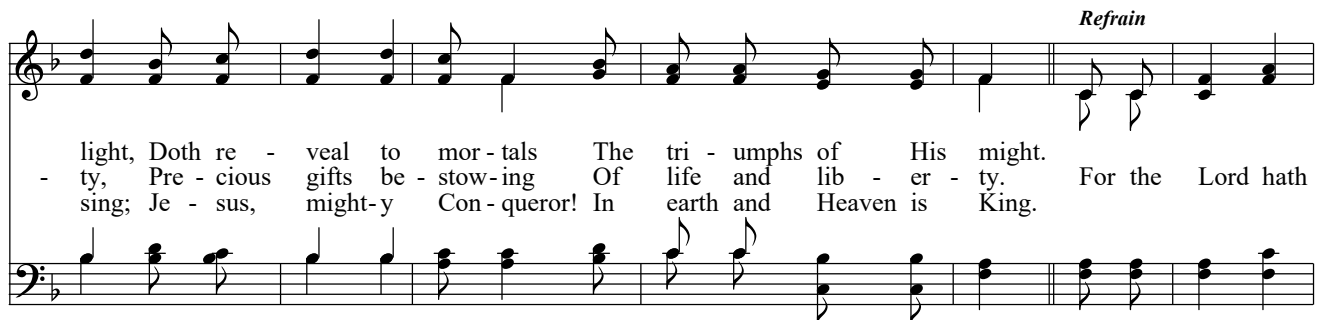

1. Je - sus the migh-ty Con-queror, Now ris - es from the tomb, His re - sur-rect - ion
2. The grave its aw - ful con - quest O'er man for ag - es won; De - feat - ed, now sur-
3. Death's power for-e'er is brok-en, God's saints no long-er mourn; Its sting can bring no glo-ry Dis - pels its chill - ing gloom. While, from its o - pen por-tals, An an - gel, clad in

- ren-ders To God's vic-tor - ious Son; The might-y Con-queror, cap-tive Now leads cap-tiv - i-tor-ture, For Christ the curse hath borne; His glor - ious ex - al - ta - tion Let men and an - gels light, Doth re - veal to mor-tals The tri - umphs of His might.

Refrain

- ty, Pre - cious gifts be - stow-ing Of life and lib - er - ty. For the Lord hath sing; Je - sus, might-y Con - queror! In earth and Heaven is King.

ris-en, The Lord hath ris-en, The Lord hath ris-en, And con-quer-ed ev-ery foe.