

Mizpah

Ellice Lacie, 1896

Joseph Lincoln Hall

$\text{♩} = 105$  Duet - Tenor and Alto

1. Yes, brief our part - ing words shall be, And few our part - ing tears; The
2. We will not fear that time or change Our per - fect trust can dim, No
3. Be - lov - èd, when we reach a - part, The val - ley lone and dread, Which,

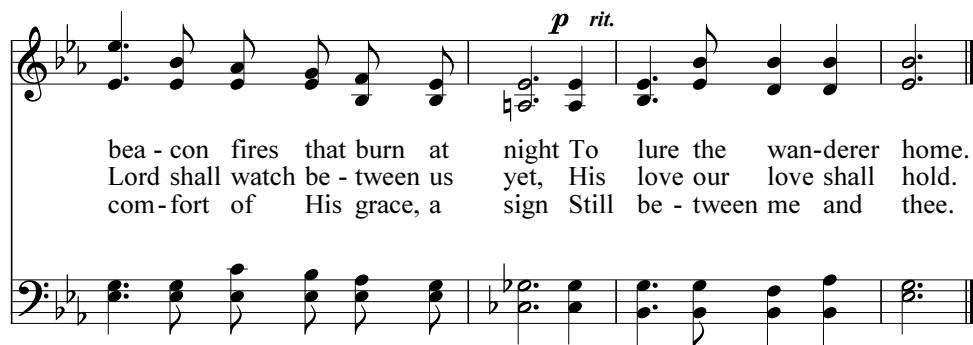

Lord shall watch 'twixt me and thee Thro' all the com - ing years;
sha - dow of a wrong es - trange The hearts that rest in Him.
side by side and heart to heart, We once had thought to tread,

Tenor Solo Quartet

His eyes shall our guid - ing light Wher - ev - er we may roam, Like But should they for one hour for - get For one faint hour be cold, The His faith - ful rod, thy staff and mine, Thro' all the ways shall be The p rit.

bea - con fires that burn at night To lure the wan - derer home.
Lord shall watch be - tween us yet, His love our love shall hold.
com - fort of His grace, a sign Still be - tween me and thee.