

The New Name

Jane E. Hall, 1878

Jane E. Hall

♩=108

1. We shall have a new name in that land, In that land, that
2. We'll re - ceive it in a pure white stone, And no one will
3. Don't you won - der what that name will be, Sweet - er far than sun - ny, sun - ny land, When we meet that bright an - gel - ic band, In that sun - ny know the name there - in, On - ly un - to him who hath 'tis known, When we're free from ought on earth can be, We will be quite sa - tis - fied when we Shall that new name land. A new name, a new name, We'll re - ceive up there; A new name, a new name, sin. A white stone, a white stone, We'll re - ceive up there; A white stone, a white stone, know. I won - der, I won - der, What that name will be, I won - der, I won - der,

Refrain

All who en - ter there.
All who en - ter there. We shall have a new name in that land, In that land, that What He'll give to me.

sun - ny, sun - ny land, When we meet that bright an - gel - ic band, In that sun - ny land.
