

New Year's Hymn

Anonymous

Harry Sanders, 1888

♩=98

1. Join your voic-es, youth re-joic-es, New Year hymns a-gain to sing; For our
 2. Thou hast kept us, God of glo-ry, Since the last New Year be-gan; Still pro-
 3. From this mo-ment, Ho-ly Je-sus, May our hearts be whol-ly Thine! Then we'll

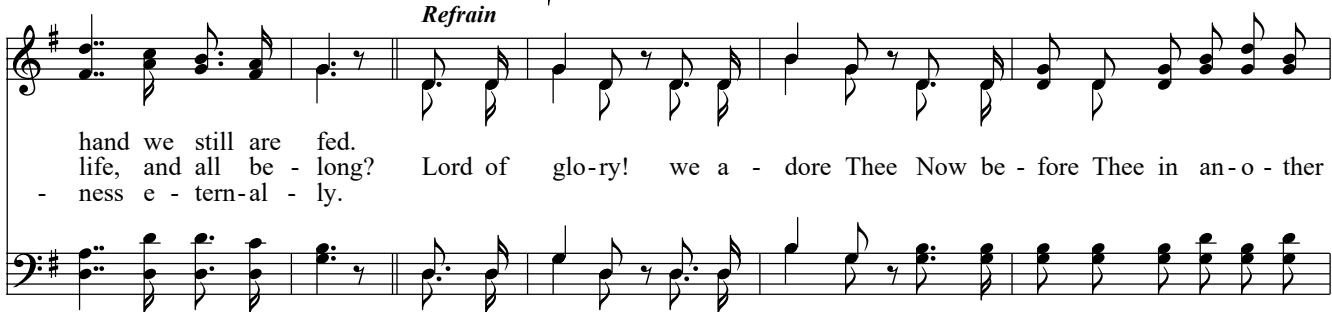

- new and ma-ny mer-cies, Lord, our heart-felt praise we bring. Sum-mer flowers have bloomed and
 - claim-ing the sweet sto-ry, Of Thy won-drous love to man. Shall we long-er keep Him sing that best of prais-es, "I am His, and He is mine." Je-sus! by Thy blood and fad-ed, Sum-mer hours have come and fled; By Thy care we still are aid-ed, By Thy wait-ing, Who for us hath wait-ed long? He to whom both soul and bo-dy, Heart and Spir-it, May we all Thy child-ren be, Then in Thee we shall in-her-it Hap-pi-

Refrain

hand we still are fed.
 life, and all be-long? Lord of glo-ry! we a-dore Thee Now be-fore Thee in an-o-ther
 - ness e-tern-al-ly.

year; May Thy heav'n-ly love a-bid-ing, Be on ev-ery schol-ar here.