

No Cross for Me?

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1910

John Robson Sweney

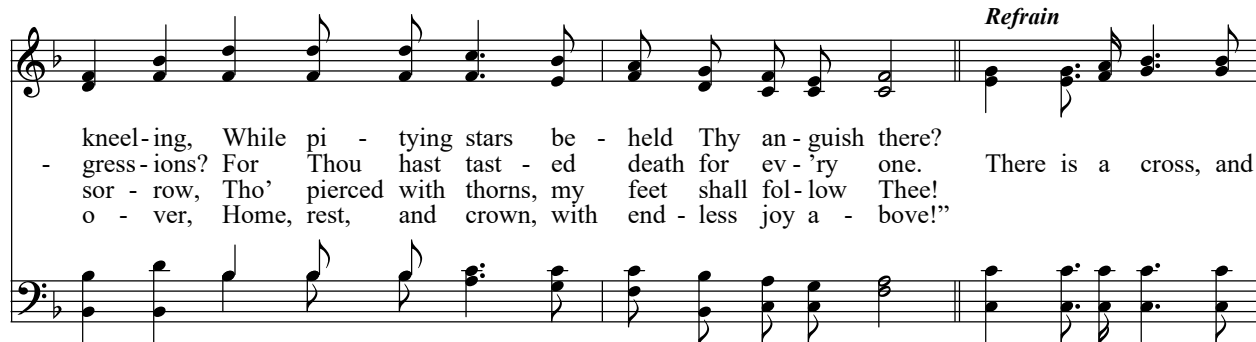

♩ = 100

1. No cross for me, O bless-èd Lord and Sav - ior? No cross for me, when
2. No cross for me, when Thou the King of glo - ry, The Well - Be - loved, the
3. No cross for me? shall I on Pis - gah's mount - ain Con - tent a - bide, from
4. "Take up the cross if thou art My di - sci - ple!" Deep in my soul I

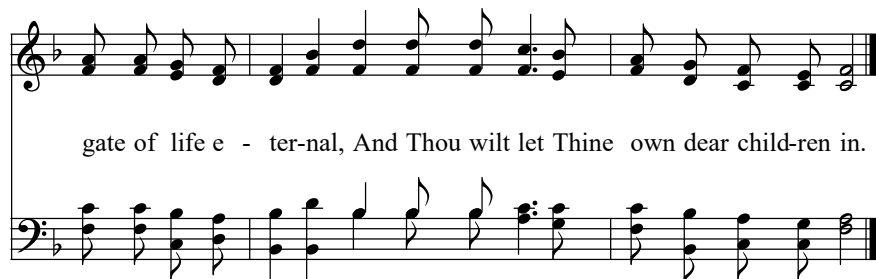

Thou Thine own didst bear, At mid - night hour with - in the gar - den Fa - ther's on - ly Son, Didst with Thy blood a - tone for all trans - care and tri - al free? Ah, no, but thro' the wil - der - ness of hear Thy words of love: "Take up the cross, and when the war is

Refrain
- kneel - ing, While pi - tying stars be - held Thy an - guish there?
- gress - ions? For Thou hast tast - ed death for ev - 'ry one. There is a cross, and sor - row, Tho' pierced with thorns, my feet shall fol - low Thee!
o - ver, Home, rest, and crown, with end - less joy a - bove!"

glad - ly I ac - cept it; There is a war - fare with a host of sin; But Thou has oped the gate of life e - ter - nal, And Thou wilt let Thine own dear child - ren in.