

No One Loves You So

Alfred Barratt, 1919

Henry Prior Morton

♩=100

1. Are the bur - dens you car - ry too hea - vy to bear? Does the
2. Do you think in your sor - row you suf - fer a - lone? All your
3. He a - lone can re - deem you from dark - ness and woe; He will
4. Cast your cares on the Sav - ior each mo - ment, each day, He will weight of your sin fill your heart with des - pair? Go to Je - sus for aid, He will grief and your sad - ness to Him are made known; He hath ne - ver for - sak - en or wash all your sins till they're white as the snow, And His won - der - ful grace you may guide you and keep you each step of the way; He will drive all your fears and your

Refrain
an - swer your prayer; There is no one who loves you so. turned from His own; There is no one who loves you so. There is con - stant - ly know; There is no one who loves you so.
sor - rows a - way; There is no one who loves you so.

no one who loves you like Je - sus, No one who loves you so; For the cross you lay down He will give you a crown; There is no one who loves you so.