Nothing to Fear

Kate Ulmer Henry W. Newton -80 1. I the clouds that my sky may be - dim, For Je - sus hath bid - den me fear not sor-row, each bur - den, each tri - al and care, He all seems but sun - shine, and glad-ness and peace, The 2. Each lov - ing - ly, ten - der - ly glad-ness and peace, Then oh, how His pre-sence the 3. When jour - ney, still trust-ing His love, I know He will lead me on - ward I Tho' dark - er than mid - night the Him; cloud's som-ber His look un - to hue, doth share; His grace is suf - fi - cient, a boun - fi - ful And with me store, doth in - crease; To know He is with me in fel low - ship sweet. Is man-sions a - bove; In yon - der fair ci - ty where He is the light, Where Refrain beau - ty love and His mer-cy in shine thro'. proved o'er and giv - en no - thing to fear as free - ly 'tis I've I've bliss be - youd tell - ing, is rap - ture com - plete. His pre-sence is with sor - row and com - eth no fall eth night. no on my way, No-thing to fear, no-thing to fear. night and by day, Noth-ing to fear, noth-ing to fear.