

No Vacant Chair

Ina Duley Ogdon, 1907

Edmund Simon Lorenz

♩=107

1. Hear the gra - cious in - vi - ta - tion, From the roy - al house of God, Un - to
2. Let us robe in snow - y white - ness For that great and hap - py day; Tune our
3. Ma - ny friends are there to meet us In re - deemed, im - mor - tal state; They are all of ev - ery na - tion, Signed and sealed by Je - sus' blood; Lo! the wed - ding feast is hearts to songs of bright - ness, Bid our trou - bles flee a - way; There shall ne - ver - more be press - ing forth to greet us, As we're sweep - ing thro' the gate; Hear the lov - ing Fa - ther wait - ing, Let us hast - en to pre - pare; Let us waste no time de - bat - ing, Let there sor - row, There shall ne - ver - more be night; At the fes - tal board to - mor - row, Shall be plead - ing, Lo! the feast a - waits us there; Oh, His bless - ed sum - mons heed - ing, Let there be no va - cant chair.

Refrain

naught but pure de - light. Let there be no va - cant chair! Let us be no va - cant chair. In the feast a - bove let there be no va - cant chair, Let us one and all be there! Lo! the wed - ding feast is rea - dy, Let there be no va - cant chair.

one and all, Let us one and all be there!