

O Love Divine, I Come!

Samantha Chloe Whipple Shoup, 1897

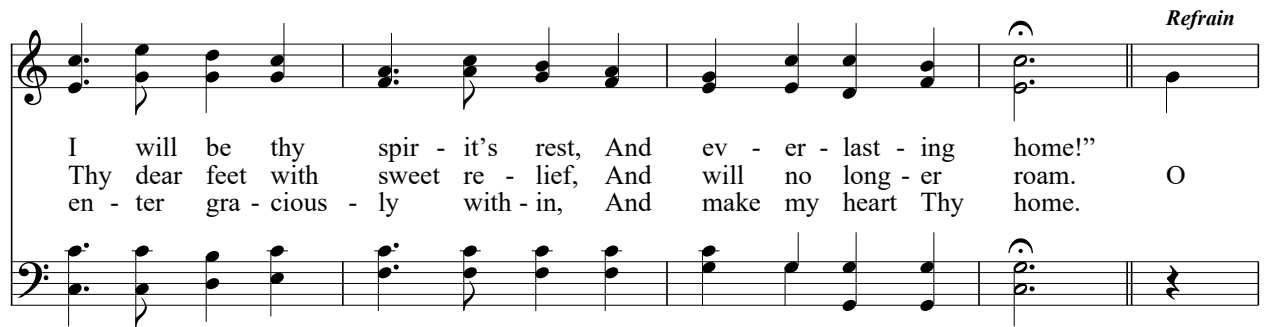

William Henry Pontius (1857–1937)

♩=108

1. Up - on the mount-ain of un-rest, I heard a voice of lov - ing quest, "Come,
2. I lay my sin and un - be-lief, My hard - ened heart, my sto - ny grief, At
3. My soul is sick and tired of sin, Make Thou my spir - it pure and clean; And

Refrain

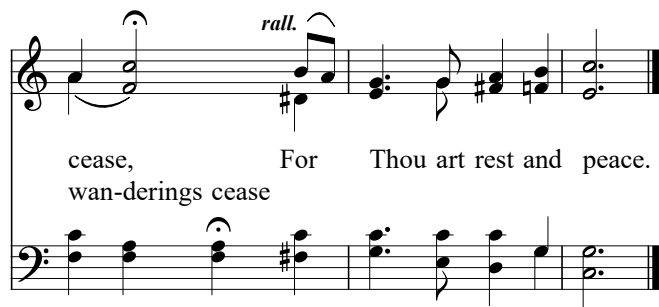

I will be thy spir - it's rest, And ev - er - last - ing home!"
Thy dear feet with sweet re - lief, And will no long - er roam. O en - ter gra - cious - ly with - in, And make my heart Thy home.

love di - vine, I come! O love di - vine, I come! In Thee my wan-derings O love di - vine, I come! O love di - vine, rall.

cease, For Thou art rest and peace.
wan-derings cease