

One Day I Traveled a Toilsome Road

Haldor Lillenas, 1923

Haldor Lillenas

$\text{♩} = 105$

1. One day I trav - eled a toil - some road O - ver the hills of des - pair;
2. Gone is the night with its sha - dows drear; Morn - ing hath dawned up - on me.
3. No more the bur - den of guilt is mine; No more in bond - age I dwell.

Refrain

One day I car - ried a wear - y load, Cum - bered with toil and with care. The Gone is the bur - den of anx - ious fear; Free - dom my por - tion shall be. The Un - to my glor - i - ous king di - vine Jub - i - lant prais - es shall swell.

bur - den that once I car - ried is gone, is gone Of all my sins there re - main - eth not one, not one. Je - sus, the Sav - ior, hath ran - somed me, Bear - ing my sins up - on Cal - va - ry, Giv - ing me glor - i - ous lib - er - ty; My bur - den of sin is gone.