

On the Highway of the King

Gertrude L. Knox, 1911

Addie A. Wallman Forman

♩ = 110

1. On the high-way of the King, Child-ren's hap-py voic-es ring, Songs of joy and
2. On the high-way of the King, Far and hard the jour-ne-y-ing; All the prayers, thy glad-ness sing-ing, To our God a - bove. Ma-ny round us, press-ing on, Gain new cour-age foot-steps heed-ing, On-ly God has known. Lit-tle child-ren, walk in love, Lift your eyes to with the song, Un - to the wear-ied, hope 'tis bring - ing, Of sweet rest and love.

Heav'n a - bove; Long though the way, at last 'tis lead - ing, To the heav'n-ly throne.

Refrain

Harmony

Then on the high-way of the King, Far let the sil-very e-choes ring, List-ening hearts that pass a-long,

Unison

Ling-er to hear the song. All who jour-ne-y on the road, Lead - ing ev-er on to God,

Harmony

Join with the child-ren, Glad prais-es sing-ing, To the King.
