

On Let Us Go

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1886

John Robson Sweeney

J=105

1. On let us go where the val - ley of E - den fair Blooms on the bank of the
2. On let us go where the beau-ti - ful realms a - bove Ring with the time hon-ored
3. On let us go where the wear-y and toil op - pressed Soon shall for-get ev - ery 4. On let us go where the lov - ing and loved shall meet, Meet on the bank of the ri - ver; On where the fields, in the beau - ti - ful robe they wear, stor - y; Saved through the might of a bless - èd Re - deem - er's love, sor - row; On where the soul to a hap - py and gold - en rest ri - ver; There shall they sing at the bless - èd Re - deem - er's feet

Refrain

Wave in the sun - light for - e - ver. His be the praise and the glor-y. On let us go, on let us go, Wakes in e - ter - ni - ty's mor-row. Songs that shall e - cho for - e - ver.

on let us go, On where the hap-py ones are call-ing.