

On That Beautiful Day

Alfred Barratt, 1929, alt.

Rufus Henry Cornelius

♩ = 110

1. There's a beau - ti - ful day that is not far a - way, When His
2. When the King shall ap - pear, He will ban - ish our fear, And the
3. They that rest in the tomb Shall a - rise from its gloom, And be 4. Let us la - bor and wait, He is now at the gate, For the glo - ry shall bright - en the sky; For the Sav - ior will come From His time of His com - ing draws nigh; He will come for His bride, O'er the caught up to meet Him on high; Free from sor - row and pain, With the signs of that day mul - ti - ply. We shall reap our re - ward, When we heav - en - ly home, On that beau - ti - ful day by and by. world scat - tered wide, On that beau - ti - ful day by and by. He is com - ing by and Sav - ior to reign, On that beau - ti - ful day by and by. to earth by and see our dear Lord, On that beau - ti - ful day by and by.

Refrain

by, He is com - ing by and by, O, what rap - ture 'twill be, When our by and by, to earth by and by, by and by, O, what

Sav - ior we see, On that beau - ti - ful day by and by.