

The Open Door

C. P. Masden, 1876

John Robson Sweney

♩ = 100

1. My soul in pri - son lay, Held fast by gall - ing chains, Shut
2. While in this wretch - ed state, God's mes - sage came to me, "It
3. I saw the bleed - ing Lamb, The won - ders of the cross, I
4. With - in that Door I stand A child of God and free, Bound in from light of day, And all the Gos - pel claims; No hu - man arm to is not yet too late" To seek your li - ber - ty; Rise up, and knock, and prayed the great "I AM" To seek and save the lost; He par - doned all my for the glo - ry land Of im - mor - tal - i - ty; What com - fort do I save, Was ma - ni - fest to me; No res - cue from the grave, No hope of li - ber - call, His help at once im - plore; Pros - trate be - fore Him fall: He is the op - en sin, He gave me bound - less store; Yes, Je - sus let me in, The great and o - pen find, What pros - pects lie be - fore, What prom - is - es are mine, Plea - sures for - ev - er -

Refrain

- ty.
Door. Je - sus, the o - pen Door, Je - sus the way to Heav'n; Je - sus now and ev - er -
- more.

- more; To Him all praise be giv'n.