

Orders from the King

Brown Rowland, 1916

Samuel W. Beazley

♩=98

1. The world is wait - ing to hear the Gos - pel, The world is
2. Waste not the mo - ments, for they are pre - cious, Let not the
3. A - cross the bor - der a crown is wait - ing For those who wait - ing for the ev - er - last - ing sto - ry; So wake, ye peo - ple, put on your Mas - ter's work seem te - dious or ap - pall - ing; Raise high the stan - dard, and keep it do His bid - ding here, com - plain - ing ne - ver; And life e - ter - nal, and rest and ar - mor, And speed a - way to - day to win e - ter - nal glo - ry. Bear ye the wav - ing, And speed a - way to those whose hearts to you are call - ing. The hours are glad - ness, Shall come to all who help some soul from sin to se - ver. So work for tid - ings of love and glad - ness, And tru - ly co - ver all the dark - ened ter - ri - fleet - ing, the days are pass - ing, And soon a - round you night's drear sha - dows will be Je - sus, that He may bless you, And let you reign with Him in par - a - dise for -

- to - ry. Go forth with cour - age, go forth with sing - ing, O - bey the or - ders from the King. ³
- fall - ing; So do your du - ty, to Him who loves you. O - bey the or - ders from the King.
- ev - er; A - way, re - joic - ing, to do the reap - ing, O - bey the or - ders from the King.

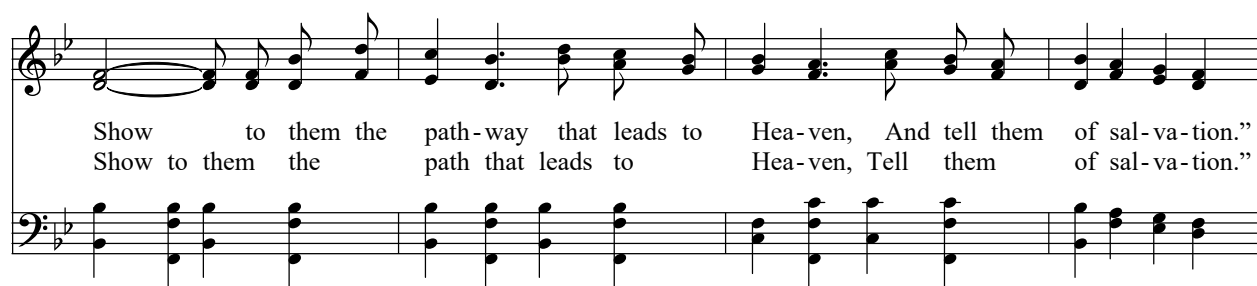

Refrain

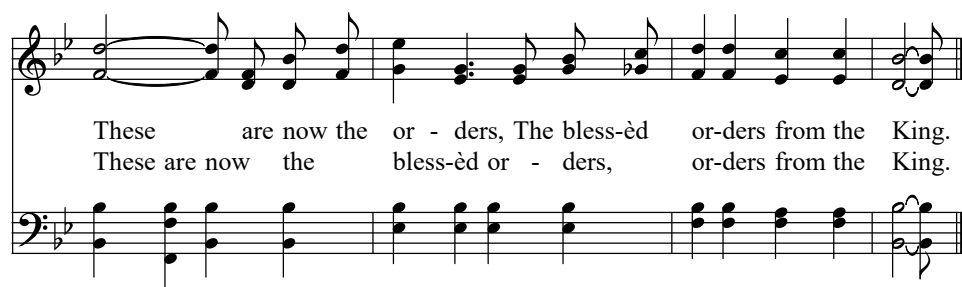

“Car - ry ye the tid-ings, Oh, preach the Gos-pel of love to ev-ery na-tion;
 “Car-ry ye the tid-ings, Preach the Gos-pel true to ev-ery na-tion;

To the liv-ing wa-ters the wea-ry, thirst - y peo-ple bring;
 To the liv - ing wa-ters all the thirs-ty peo-ple bring; Oh, haste a-way to bring them,

Show to them the path-way that leads to Hea-ven, And tell them of sal-va-tion.”
 Show to them the path that leads to Hea-ven, Tell them of sal-va-tion.”

These are now the or - ders, The bless-éd or-ders from the King.
 These are now the bless-éd or - ders, or-ders from the King.