

O the Crown

James McGranahan, 1887

James McGranahan

♩=100

1. Wea - ry glean - er in the field, poor or plen - ty be the yield, La - bor
2. Je - sus now has gone a - bove to com - plete His work of love; His re-
3. O how light will seem the grief, and the toil - some way how brief, When a on for the Mas - ter, no - thing fear - ing, There's a prom - ise of re - ward, at the

- turn, day by day, is sure - ly near - ing, When His own He will re - ceive, and a crown in the glo - ry we are wear - ing, O the rap - ture who can tell, as for-

Refrain

com - ing of the Lord, Un - to all them that love His ap - pear - ing. O the wel - come He will give, Un - to all them that love His ap - pear - ing.
- ev - er - more we dwell, With re - deemed ones that loved His ap - pear - ing.

crown, the glo - ry crown, O the day, the hap - py day is near - ing, When the
The glo - ry crown, the glo - ry crown, crown of rich re - ward Shall be giv - en by the Lord, Un - to all them that love His ap - pear - ing.