

The Other Side

Thomas Doggett, 1897

A. L. Stough

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Oh! Mas - ter, we are wea - ry With men's cold hearts and pride; How
 2. They care not to come with us And Thy dis - ci - ples be; They
 3. Bright fields lie there be - fore us, The wa - ters are not wide, And
 4. "Work pa - tient-ly, My child - ren," His calm, sweet voice re - plied, "At long, ere Thou wilt take us Un-to the o - ther side? Un-to the o - ther side!

Refrain

 si - lent-ly de - ride us— Oh, let us cross the sea. Un-to the o - ther side!
 friends and rest and Hea - ven Are on the o - ther side. Are on the o - ther side!
 night you shall pass o - ver, Un-to the o - ther side." Un-to the o - ther side!

Un-to the o - ther side! How long ere Thou wilt take us Un-to the o - ther side?
 Un-to the o - ther side! Oh, let us cross the bright sea Un-to the o - ther side!
 Are on the o - ther side! And friends and rest and Hea - ven Are on the o - ther side!
 Un-to the o - ther side! At night you shall pass o - ver, Un-to the o - ther side.