

O Where Can Truth Be Found Today?

Richard W. Adams, 2019

Thomas Haweis, 1792

1. O where can truth be found to - day? And where does wis - dom
2. From iv - ory towers, phi - loso - phies fair, From ora - cles of a
3. They tra - vel to and fro, and run To far off lands and
4. "I am the way, the truth, and the life." Re - spond to Je - sus'
5. Let Je - sus have your heart to - day, He peace and love will be-hide? Oh, who to life's mys - ter - ies ho - lds the key? Oh, where does the day, In halls of the learn - èd, in pal - ac - es strong, Do ques - tion - ers lore; With un - hear - ing ea - rs, they do not per - ceive That tru - th is call, And o - pen the do - or to tru - th and light: In Him is no

- stow; On Chr - ist the Ro - ck of tru - th now stand, From whe - nce do know - ing heart a - bide?

seek to learn the Way.
knock - ing at the door.
da - rk - ness at all.
wis - dom's wa - ters flow.