

O Wonderful Savior

E. F. Miller, 1888

E. F. Miller

$\text{♩} = 85$

1. I have heard a most won - der - ful sto - ry Of Je - sus, the Sav - ior and
2. With the poor and the low - ly He min - gled— Yes, e - ven the vil - est of
3. A poor wo - man was brought to Him help - less, To be stoned for her sins in the
4. See Him weep at a grave in the hour When tears of an - guish are shed; See 5. Yes, He came to give life to the dy - ing, To heal all the brok - en in king; How He came from the bright realms of glo - ry Glad news of sal - va - tion to men, Show - ing mer - cy and love as they lin - gered, To hear His blest words un - to past; He re - plied to them, "He that is sin - less, By him let the first stone be Him burst - ing the tomb by His pow - er, Say - ing, "La - za - rus, come forth from the heart; And He prom - ised a home where's no sigh - ing, And loved ones shall ne'er a - gain

Refrain

bring.
them.
cast." O won - der - ful, won - der - ful Sav - ior, Thy prais - es with joy we will sing: For dead!"
part.

com - ing on earth to re - deem us We crown Thee for - ev - er our king!