

A Plaintive Plea

Clara McAlister Brooks, 1918

Daniel Otis Teasley

J = 95

1. A plain - tive plea comes o'er the sea From na - tions in dis-
2. The rip - ened grain on In - dia's plain, Still waits for reap - ers
3. The strong com - mand to ev - ery land— "Go, spread the Gos - pel
4. A plain - tive plea, oh, can it be Their souls are doomed and

- tress; From dark - est night they ask for light, Their ru - ined land to bless.
true; Hours swift-ly fly while dai - ly die The mil - lions in their woe.
news!" Then haste a - way, till truth shall sway Its scep-ter o'er the seas.
lost? Go save them now till all shall bow Be - fore the Sav - ior's cross.

Refrain

A plain-tive plea comes o'er the sea; How long, O Lord, still must they wait? Oh, has-ten there with faith and prayer, Or soon 'twill be too late.