♩=105

1. Once our gen - tle, lov - ing Sav - ior, Was a child like you and me;
2. Come, and hear the pre - cious sto - ry, How our bless - èd Lord was slain;
3. Come, and hear the pre - cious sto - ry, Though re - peat - ed o'er and o'er;
4. O how much we ought to thank Him For the ma - ny gifts we share;

Come, and hear the pre - cious sto - ry, Naught on earth so sweet can be.
Once He gave Him - self our ran - som, Now for us He lives a - gain.
Still, it al - ways tell us some - thing That we ne - ver knew be - fore.
O how much we ought to praise Him For His kind and watch - ful care.

Refrain

Come, and hear the pre - cious sto - ry, How He came the lost to Come and hear the pre - cious sto - ry How He came save; How His life was on - ly sor - row, From the save, the lost to save; How His life sor - row, from the cra - dle, the cra - dle to the grave.
