

Quickly Coming

Martin Wells Knapp, 1902

Arranged from John Hart Stockton, 1869

♩=113

1. Soon skies will rend and Christ desc-end, And ev - ery eye be - hold Him, While
2. We then shall rise, and in the skies, With heav'n-ly bliss and glo - ry, The
3. And when at last the rap - ture past, And mar - riage feast is end - ed, Then
4. Then Christ will reign and His do - main, From land to sea be giv - en, Oh,
5. If you would share His king - dom fair Be rea - dy, now He calls you, Too an - gels bright in clouds of light, In ma - jes-ty en - fold Him; His trump-et sound will graves shall quake, and coff - ins break, And saints a - rise to meet Him; Be - hold His face, oh wars will cease and per - fect peace O'er all the world pre - vail - ing, The bri - dal train re - now a - wake! your sins for-sake, Re - pent, 'tis now or ne - ver! His king - dom come, and late, too late, if long you wait, His com - ing is im - pend-ing, Oh to Him fly, while soon re - sound, Thro' earth and Heav - en ring - ing, His dead will wake, His wond - rous grace! And sing the "old, old story." When by and by the sods

- turns a - gain, By heav'n - ly hosts de - fend - ed; And right - eous - ness the will be done, "On earth as 'tis in Heav - en. Oh trust His grace, the He is nigh, Be - fore His wrath be - falls you; Like light - ning flash, and

Refrain
bride He'll take, To mar - riage sup - per bring - ing.
will fly, As we as - cend to greet Him.
world shall bless, With not one prom - ise fail - ing. Je - sus, Lamb for sin - ners slain, cross em - brace, Or you are lost for - ev - er."
thun - der crash, He soon will be des - cend - ing.

Oh how sweet the glad re - frain, Com - ing soon as king to reign, Quick - ly come, Lord Je - sus!