

A Rainbow on the Cloud

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1914

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

♩=90

1. Be not wea - ry or cast down, When the heav - ens seem to frown, There's a
 2. He whose word re - buked the storm Now is a - ble to per - form Ev - ery 3. There's a rain - bow on the cloud! Tho' your soul is sor - row-bowed, Lift your rain - bow on the cloud for you! 'Tis an arch of prom - ise bright, Ear - nest word He whis - pers to your heart; Whol - ly lean up - on Him, then, For the voice to praise the Lord to - day; There's a rain - bow 'round the throne; In its of un - fad - ing light Pour - ing from a sky of ra - diant blue. sun will shine a - gain, And the sha - dows ev - er - more de - part. There's a glo - ry we will own That He led us in His per - fect way.

rain - bow on the cloud for you, There's a prom - ise that is sure and true; Yes, the storm will pass a - way; There will dawn a bright - er day— There's a rain - bow on the cloud for you.