

Rejoice, Rejoice, the Lost Is Found

Frank Leslie Bristow, 1889

Frank Leslie Bristow

$\text{♩} = 100$

1. Joy - ful - ly march a - long, and shout the song To the earth's re - mot - est
2. Wan - der - er far a - way from love to - day, In the sea of sin so
3. Joy - ful - ly an - gels bring the sig - net ring, Of a Fa - ther's par - doning
4. Heav - en - ly home! sweet home! How sweet to roam Thro' thy realm of beau - ty bound, "Sal - va - tion's come, the wan - derer's home. The lost one now is found." Re - low, A call from home now bids you "come," A - rise and say, "I'll go." Your grace, And roy - al fare, they now pre - pare, Be - fore His smil - ing face, A - rare, With an - gel throng, join in a song Of joy be - yond com - pare. "Re -

Refrain

- joice! Re - joice! with heart and voice; Re - peat the wel - come sound!
va - cant chair is wait - ing there, And rai - ment white as snow!
- way with fears! a - way with tears! Re - ceive His fond em - brace! With
- deem - er! King!" for - ev - er sing The loved ones ga - thered there!

songs of joy, your tongues em - ploy, And re - peat the wel - come sound, "Sal - va - tion's come! The wan - derer's home, The lost one now is found!"