

Rejoice! Today Earth Tells Abroad

William Chatterton Dix (1837–1898), alt.

Robert Frederick Smith (1833–1905)

♩=97

1. Re - joi - ce! to - day earth tells a - broad, With ho - ly ve - ne - ra - tion, The
2. All hail! we know the Mas - ter's voice, Those words of true en - dear - ing; The
3. Let all the world be ve - ry glad And all that is with - in it; He glad - some Pass - o - ver of God, The feast of ex - ul - ta - tion. Christ heav'n - ly bride must needs re - joi - ce In her dear king's ap - pear - ing; With who a - while do - min - ion had No more, thank God, may win it! Heav'n now from death to life, From bond - age to re - lease, To rest from wea - ry hearts from ev - il free We turn to Him, the Light, Death's con - quer - or we keeps the roy - al feast; Hell, at the sight dis - mayed, Grows faint be - fore the strife, His own hath brought to peace.

♩=110

Refrain

see, And life is in the sight! Re - joi - ce, re - joi - ce, re - joi - ce, Re - joi - ce, re - least, Be - fore the faint, a - fraid!

- joi - ce, Sing al - le - lu - ia.