

Ring Out, Merry Bells

Emily Huntington Miller, 1875

Anonymous, 1875, alt.

♩=105

1. Ring out, mer-ry bells in the stee-ple, Sing loud, hap-py voic-es, to - night. And
2. Oh, na - tions that wait for the mor-row, Re - joice! for the dawn is at hand! Oh,
3. The eyes of the blind shall be op - ened, The King in His beau-ty to see; The
4. Ring out, mer-ry bells in the stee-ple, Ring loud, hap-py voic-es, to - night! And

Refrain
join with each kin - dred and peo-ple In an - them of praise and de - light!
cap - tives who pine in your sor - rows, The Sav-ior shall se - ver your bands! Good tongue of the dumb shall be loos-ened To ut - ter its prais - es to Thee!
join with each kin - dred and peo-ple In an - them of praise and de - light!

will from the Fa-ther a - bove, Good will to His child-ren be - low! How The Fa-ther a-bove. His child-ren be-low.

glad was the morn When the Sav - ior was born, To ran-som our souls by His love!