

Ring Out the Anthem, Jesus Lives

Emma F. Pitt, 1880

C. Fitzsimmons

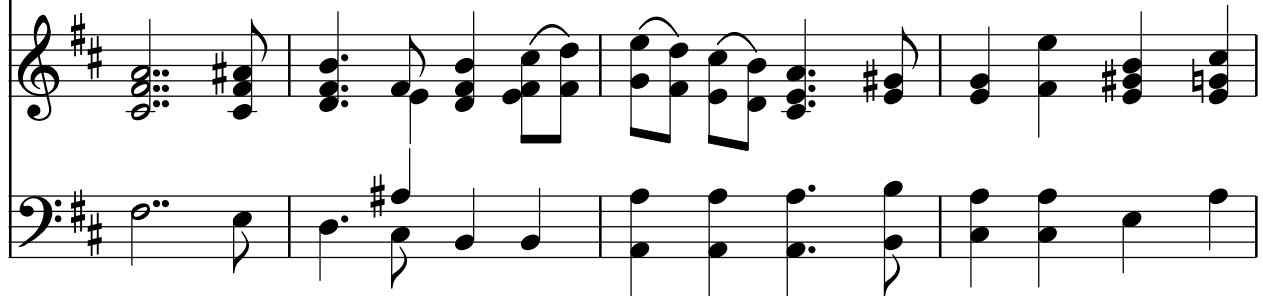

♩=97

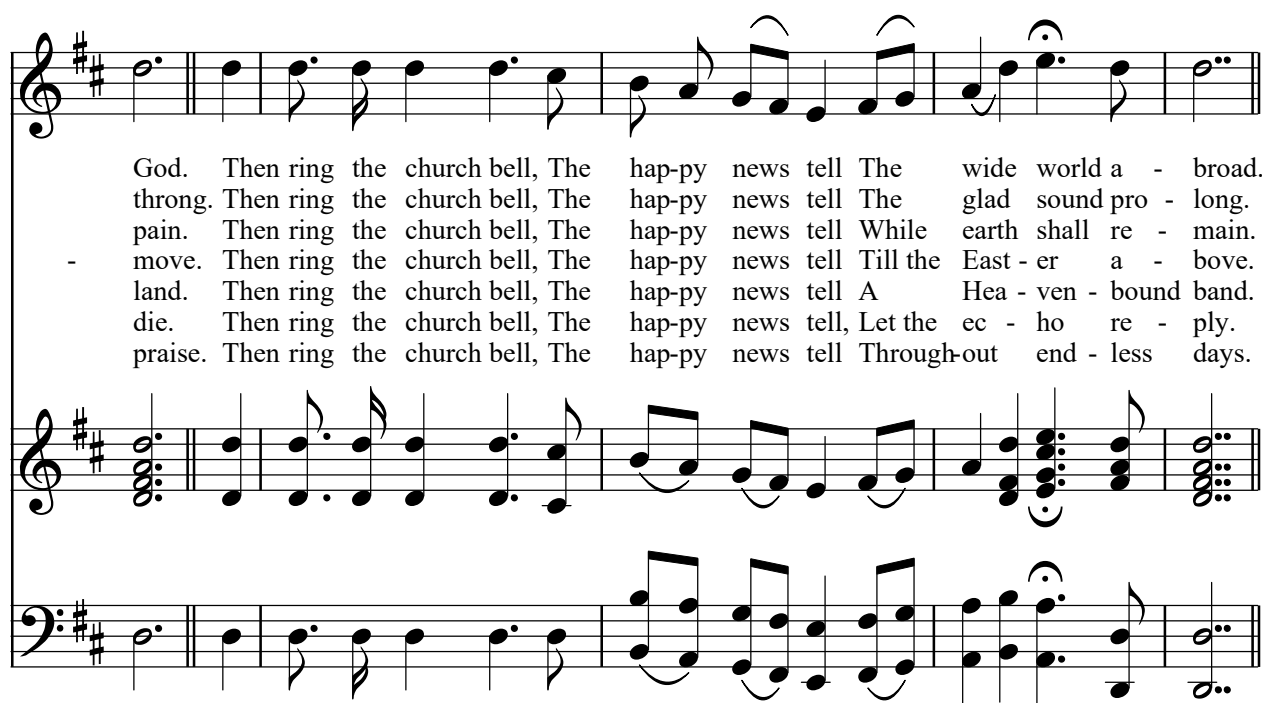

1. Ring out the an - them, Je - sus lives, No more to shed His
 2. He lives to hear the child - ren's prayer, To wake the child - ren's
 3. He lives to plead when child - ren sin, To wash a - way each
 4. He lives to bless each lit - tle heart Which rests on Je - sus'
 5. Up - on each lit - tle rest - less head To lay His un - seen
 6. He now pre - pares the child - ren's home, Way up be - yond the
 7. Ring out the an - them, Je - sus lives! Re - peat the joy - ful blood; His death to us sal - va - tion gives, And now He reigns with song; He list - ens to its mu - sic there A - mid the heav'n - ly stain, Their souls from Sa - tan's grasp to win, Saved from e - ter - nal love, His grace and mer - cy to im - part, And ev - ery fear re - hand, And guide the wan - dering lit - tle feet To Ca - naan's pro - mised sky, Where sin and sor - row ne - ver come, And child - ren ne - ver lays Till ev - ery child on earth be - lieves And sings the Sav - ior's

God. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell The wide world a - broad.
 throng. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell The glad sound pro - long.
 pain. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell While earth shall re - main.
 - move. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell Till the East - er a - bove.
 land. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell A Hea - ven - bound band.
 die. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell, Let the ec - ho re - ply.
 praise. Then ring the church bell, The hap-py news tell Through-out end - less days.

Interlude

