

The River of Life

Mattie W. Torrey, 1875

William James Kirkpatrick

J=100

1. O won - der-ful riv - er! O life giv-ing riv - er! That flows thro' the
2. O throne of the Lamb, with its glo - ry un - spok-en! O trees He hath 3. We pine in the bond - age that sin has thrown o'er us, We long for the streets of the ci - ty a - bove; The trees on thy mar - gin, that bloss - om and plant - ed for heal - ing and rest! Shine on in our vi - sion, and give us a joy and the free - dom of home— To join in the swell of the glor - i - fied

Refrain

quiv-er, Bring forth for the na - tions a fruit - age of love. Won - - der-ful tok - en To com - fort the heart that is sore and op - pressed. Won-der-ful, won-der - ful chor-us, To drink of the riv - er that flows from the throne. Won-der-ful, won-der - ful riv - er! Won - - der-ful riv - er! Glad - - dening the riv-er of life! Won-der-ful, won-der-ful riv-er of life! Glad-dening the plains where the plains where the ran - somed a - bide: Flow on-ward for-ran-somed a-bide, where the ran-somed in glo-ry a - bide!

- ev-er, won-der-ful, won-der-ful riv-er! Pure as thy source, which no dark-ness can hide!