

Say, Will You Be There?

H. L. Frisbie, 1911, alt.

Peter Philip Bilhorn

♩=88

1. Have you heard a - bout a meet - ing That is com - ing ve - ry soon? It may
2. Have you heard a - bout this meet - ing Of a vast, un - count - ed throng Who will
3. There will be the He - brew child - ren, Who with - stood the fie - ry test; And the
4. All the saints of count - less ag - es Will a - wak - en from their sleep, And the

be at dawn or mid - night, Or in glo - ry of the noon; Je - sus ga - ther when the trum - pet, Rolls its gold - en notes a - long? There'll be dear - ly loved dis - ci - ple Who re - clined on Je - sus' breast; And the liv - ing will be ga - thered As a shep - herd herds his sheep: And this will be there ma - jes - tic, With Him no - thing can com - pare; For this Da - vid, God's sweet sin - ger, Lead - ing bands of harp - ers fair; Old E - Ma - rys with the Mar - thas, Who brought spic - es rich and rare To a - long ex - pect - ed meet - ing Will be held up in the air— Are you meet - ing are you rea - dy? Say, will you be there?

- li - jah and E - li - sha— But will you be there?
- noint His brok - en bo - dy— But, will you be there? Say, will you be there, And the rea - dy to be caught up? Say, will you be there?

Refrain

crown-ing glo-ry share? If the trum-pet sounds at mid-night, Say will you be there? Yes, will you be there, With the le - gions in the air? Are you rea-dy to be caught up? Say, will you be there?