

Scattering Sunshine

Charles Edwin Neal, 1897

Charles Edwin Neal

1. We're scat - ter - ing sun - shine, wher - ev - er we go, 'Tis
2. We're scat - ter - ing smiles all a - long on our way, To
3. We're scat - ter - ing kind words of cheer as we go, To

Je - sus who gives us the sun-shine, we know; He bids us while tra - veling this light-en some bur - den, we scat-ter each ray, To bright-en some lives that are com-fort the wea - ry, who jour-ney be - low; And Je - sus has prom-ised to dark world be-low; Scat-ter the sun-shine of love.

Refrain

cheer-less to - day, Scat-ter the sun-shine of love. Scat-ter-ing sun-shine sent from a-help us, we know, Scat-ter the sun-shine of love.

- bove, Scat - ter - ing sun - shine, sun - shine of Love; We're scat - ter - ing sun-shine, wher-ev - er we go, Scat-ter-ing sun-shine of love.