

The Shepherds on Fair Bethlehem's Plain

Edward G. Selden, before 1917

George Edgar Oliver

♩=103

1. The shep-herds on fair Beth-le'm's plain, A - sleep be - neath the star - ry host, A -
2. The wise men came from far a - way, From rich - est lands and bright - est seas, Led
3. And now men here are all a - flame, Here souls with heav'n - ly joy are filled; To -

- woke to learn how One shall reign Whose power is from the Ho - ly Ghost; For on - ward by a star - red ray To Him who in a man - ger lies. They
- day was born that Child of fame, To - day a - new our hearts are thrilled. To an - gel songs the mes - sage bring, Of joy in Heav'n and peace on earth, That bend a - bove the Child so fair, And wor - ship Him as Lord and King, With Him our glad - some songs we raise, To Him our choic - est trea - sures give, To men the song may ev - er sing, How Christ had sweet and low - ly birth.

gifts of gold and gems most rare, And ev - ery roy - al of - fer - ing.
Him we of - fer end - less praise, And seek in Him for Him to live.