

She Sweetly Dwells Up There

Ellen McAfee, 1913

Charles Albert Brock

$\text{♩} = 90$

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It features a treble and bass staff with a key signature of three sharps (F#, C#, G#) and a 3/4 time signature. The tempo is marked as quarter note = 90. The lyrics are arranged in four verses, with the first verse being a four-part setting. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with the piano accompaniment providing harmonic support through chords and single notes.

1. A lov - ing wife, a mo - ther dear, A sis - ter kind and sweet, A 2. Our hearts beat hea - vi - ly with grief, Our tears un - bid - den flow To
3. And when death's sol - emn hour drew near, With hope naught could dis - pel, She 4. Her mem - ory fresh will ev - er be To all who knew her here, For pre - cious daugh - ter, oh! so fair! Now rests at Je - sus' feet! She left us here to part with one we loved so well, But she is safe, we know, For God who do - eth called her hus - band to her side, And told him all was well; She bade him live a she was kind to ev - ery one, Bright, smil - ing, full of cheer; Her life was such a mourn a - lone In this sad world of pain, And gained a home of all things well, Who know - eth what is best, Hath called, "Come home, thou Christ - ian life, And raise her child - ren right, And meet her in that Christ - like one, While here on earth she stayed, And now she dwells in

Refrain
 $\text{♩} = 110$

per - fect peace Where she will ev - er reign.
faith - ful one, And share e - ter - nal rest." She dwells up there in hap - py land, Where sin can ne - ver blight. So sweet - ly she dwells there that bright home, In snow - white robes ar - rayed.

man-sions so fair That Je - sus said He'd go and pre - pare, And some bright Je-sus has said He would there we some morn, when earth-life is o'er, We'll meet her where we'll part ne-ver - more.

bright morn,