

Shout! Shout for Joy

Lizzie Douglas Foulks DeArmond, 1900

Joseph Lincoln Hall

♩=100

1. Shout! Shout for joy, and sing a - loud with glad-ness! Lo! In the east the
2. Not with des - pair, we view the grave's cold por - tals, Je - sus has robbed it
3. We, too, shall rise from glo - ry un - to glo - ry, Free from earth's fet - ters, star of hope ap - pears; Je - sus has ris - en from the tomb tri - umph - ant, of the dark - some gloom; On - ly the pas - sage - way from earth to Hea - ven, clad with right - eous - ness; Shout! Shout for joy, ye an - gels, join the cho - rus;

Refrain

Van - quished is death thro' all the com - ing years.
Bright with God's light, is the once dread-ed tomb. Shout! Shout!
He lives! The Christ, for - ev - er - more to bless.

Shout! Shout! Shout for joy, and sing a - loud with glad-ness, Van-

- quished is death thro' all the com-ing years.