

Sing Again That Sweet Story

Lizzie de Armond, 1911

Carl Harold Lowden

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. O sing a - gain that sto - ry sweet and true, The joy - ful strain that filled the
2. Thro' still - ness deep, the glad ex - ult - ant lay Floats down once more our hearts to
3. O sing a - gain that sto - ry won - drous sweet, Shine out, ye stars, with clear ce -

sky so bright, When an - gels came thro' Hea - ven's star - ry ways, Good calm and cheer, Re - joice, O earth! al - though He wears no crown, A
- les - tial glow; By faith we see the low - ly man - ger bed, And $\text{♩} = 110$ Refrain

news to bring one ho - ly night.
king en - throned, the Lord is here. Sing the sto - ry, bless - èd sto - ry, Ev - er sweet and praise His name whose love we know.

true; "Christ the lov - ing heav'n - ly Sav - ior Comes this day to you."

Sing the sto - ry an - gels told, Speed - ing down from gates of gold Sing the sto - ry,

Christ from glo - ry: All the world must know.