

Sing, Sing for Christmas!

John Hodson Eggar, 1874

John Sebastian Bach Hodges

$\text{♩} = 90$

1. Sing, sing for Christ-mas! Wel - come, hap - py day! For Christ is born our Sav - ior, To
 2. Tell, tell the sto - ry Of the won - drous night, When shep - herds who were watch - ing Their
 3. Soft, soft - ly shin - ing, Stars were in the sky, And sil - ver fell the moon - light On
 4. Hark, hear them sing - ing, Sing - ing in the sky, Be wor - ship, hon - or, glo - ry, And
 5. Sing, sing for Christ-mas! E - cho, earth, the cry, Of wor - ship, hon - or, glo - ry, And take our sins a - way. Sing, sing a joy - ful song, Loud and clear to - day; To flocks till morn - ing light, Saw an - gel hosts from Heav'n, Heard the an - gel voice, And hill and mount - ain high, When sud - den - ly the night Shone as bright mid - day, With praise to God on high! Peace, peace, good - will to men Born the Child from Heav'n! The praise to God on high! Sing, sing the joy - ful song, Let it ne - ver cease, Of praise our Lord and Sav - ior, Who in a man - ger lay.

Refrain

 so were told the tid - ings Which make the world re - joice.
 an - gel hosts who her - ald The reign of peace for aye. Sing, sing for Christ - mas, Christ, the Lord, the Sav - ior The Son to you is giv'n!
 glo - ry in the high - est, On earth, good will and peace.

Wel - come, hap - py day! For Christ is born our Sav - ior, To take our sins a - way.