

The Song of Peace

Clarence Milton Seamans, 1906

Clarence Milton Seamans

♩ = 110

1. 'Twas a calm and peace - ful night On the sac - red hills of
2. 'Mid the glo - ry shin - ing round, Stood the an - gel of the
3. Scarce - ly fin - ished was his word, When a host of an - gels
4. When the song was hushed and still, Back to Heav'n the an - gels old; From a - bove the stars shone bright, Flash - ing down their beams of Lord; Bow - ing fear - ful, to the ground, Thus the shep - herds heard his sang; Heav'n - ly strains the watch - ers stirred, While the hills of Ju - dea ped; Ev - ery heart with joy did thrill At the words the an - gel gold. Shep - herds kept strict vi - gil there While their flocks lay calm - ly word. "Fear thou not, for now, be - hold Tid - ings of great joy I rang. Song of glo - ry heard they then, "Glo - ry to our God on said. Quick - ly then the shep - herds went O'er the hills and val - leys by, When a scene of beau - ty rare Fell up - on each wonder - ing eye.

bring; As the pro - phets have fore - told Un - to you is born a King."
high; Peace on earth, good will to men," Chant - ed an - gels hover - ing nigh.
wild, To the place whence they were sent; There they found the ho - ly Child.

Refrain

Ho - ly an - gels from the realms a - bove, Came to earth on wings of Ho-ly an-gels Came to earth love; Sing-ing glo - ry o'er and o'er a-gain, "Peace on earth, good will to men."

Sing-ing glo-ry