

The Soul Cheering Promise

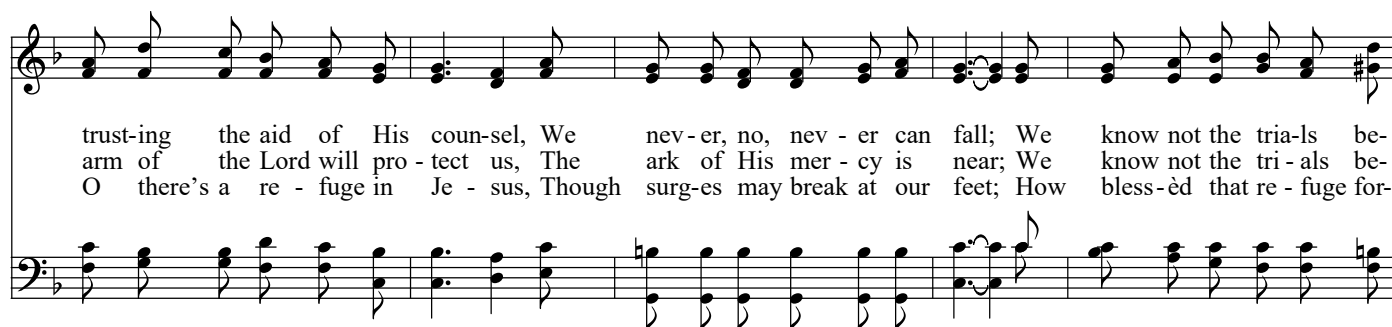

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1896

George N. Rockwell

♩ = 100

1. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, But Je - sus takes thought for them all, And
2. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, But why; should we trem - ble or fear? The
3. We know not the tri - als be - fore us, The sor - rows and cares we shall meet, But trust - ing the aid of His coun - sel, We nev - er, no, nev - er can fall; We know not the tri - als be - arm of the Lord will pro - tect us, The ark of His mer - cy is near; We know not the tri - als be - O there's a re - fuge in Je - sus, Though surg - es may break at our feet; How bless - ed that re - fuge for -

- fore us, Or what on the mor - row may be, But sweet is the soul - cheer - ing prom - ise, "My
- fore us, Or what our tempt - a - tions may be, But strong - er than death is the prom - ise, "My
- ev - er Where safe from the storm we shall be, The pass - word to life is the prom - ise, "My grace is suf - fi - cient for thee."

Refrain

grace is suf - fi - cient for thee." Then cleave to the Sav - ior, cleave to Him, What - ev - er the con - flict may grace is suf - fi - cient for thee."

be, Re - mem - ber the soul - cheer - ing prom - ise, "My grace is suf - fi - cient for thee."