

The Story Must Be Told

Frances Jane (Fanny) Crosby, 1899

Ira David Sankey

$\text{♩} = 103$

1. O the pre - cious Gos - pel sto - ry, How it tells of love to all; How the
2. O the bless - èd Gos - pel sto - ry, Of His meek and low - ly birth, And the
3. O the won - dorus Gos - pel sto - ry; There is life in ev - ery word; There is

Sav - ior in com - pas - sion, Died to save us from the fall; How He came to seek the wel - come of the an - gels When they sang good will to earth; Of the cross, on which He hope and con - so - la - tion, Where the mes - sage sweet is heard; Let us tell it to the lost ones, And to bring them to His fold; Let us has - ten to pro - claim it, For the suf - fered, As by pro - phets seen of old; Of His death and re - sur - rec - tion, Let the wea - ry, And its beau - ties all un - fold; 'Tis the on - ly guide to Hea - ven, And the

Refrain

sto - ry must be told.
sto - ry now be told. The sto - ry must be told, The sto - ry must be told, That Je - sus died for sto - ry must be told.

sin - ners lost, The sto - ry must be told.