

The Story That Never Grows Old

James Martin Gray, 1899

Ira David Sankey

♩=95

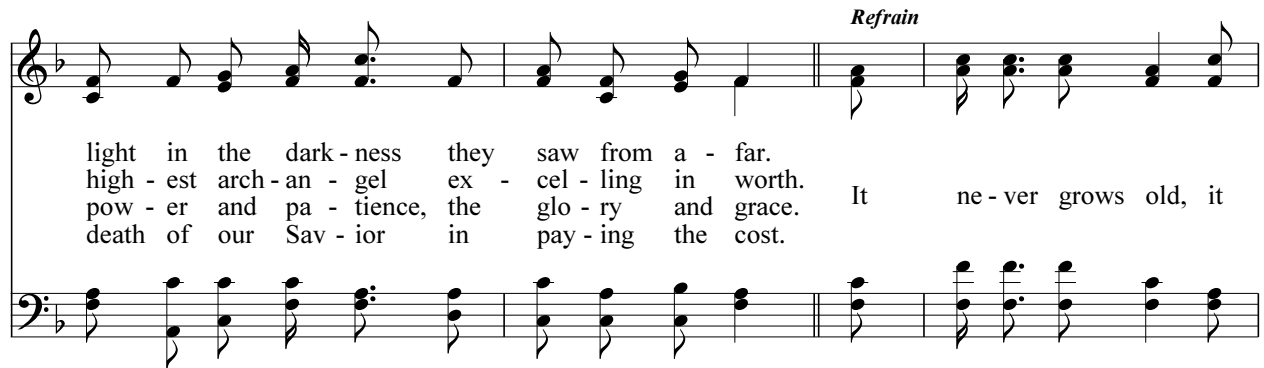

1. O tell me the sto-ry that ne-ver grows old, The sto-ry of One whom the
2. O tell me the sto-ry that ne-ver grows old, The sto-ry the an-gel at
3. O tell me the sto-ry that ne-ver grows old, The sto-ry the Gos-pels re-
4. O tell me the sto-ry that ne-ver grows old, The sto-ry the ag-es to pro-phets fore-told; The horn of sal-va-tion, the scep-ter and star, The Beth-le-hem told; The Babe in the man-ger, of low-li-est birth, The -peat man-i-fold; The love and com-pas-sion in Je-sus we trace, The come will un-fold; The kind-ness of God in re-deem-ing the lost, The light in the dark-ness they saw from a-far.

Refrain

high-est arch-an-gel ex-cel-ling in worth. It ne-ver grows old, it pow-er and pa-tience, the glo-ry and grace.
death of our Sav-ior in pay-ing the cost.

ne-ver grows old, The sto-ry of Je-sus will ne-ver grow old!