

Take Wings to Thy Soul

Eliza Edmunds Hewitt, 1914

Charles Hutchinson Gabriel

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. Take wings to thy soul; take the pin-ions of prayer To rise a - bove tri - als, temp-
2. Take wings to thy soul; take the pin-ions of praise; A - rise, like the lark, in the
3. Take wings to thy soul; take the pin-ions of love, All faith - ful - ly serv - ing the

- ta - tions and care; New mea - sures of bless - ing so trust - ful - ly bring, And pure morn - ing rays; With car - ols of glad - ness as fresh as the dew, Give Mas - ter a - bove; O, haste to the need - y with tid - ings of cheer; Spread hold sweet com - mun - ion with Je - sus, thy king. Take wings, bright wings; Take thanks for His mer - cies, a - bun - dant and true. take wings bright wings, heav - en - ly sun - shine where path - ways are drear.

Refrain

wings to the soul, O, be - liev - er, to - day! Take wings, bright wings; Mount take wings bright wings,

up as the ea - gle, re - joice in thy way.