

Take Hold the Life-Line

Fred G. Strickland, 1892

Curtis V. Strickland

$\text{♩} = 100$

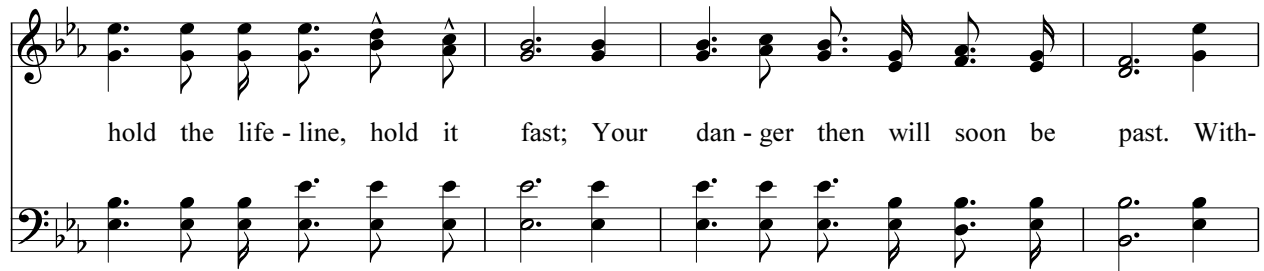

1. O sail - or, on life's stor-my sea, Your boat is dri - ven to'ard the reef; You
2. The rocks are hid - den in the deep, Your ves - sel will be shat - tered there; Now
3. See! now your boat is in the shoal, The roar-ing waves dash o'er its deck; It do not know the dan - ger near, Nor feel your need of quick re - lief. is the time to save your life, Dis - as - ter comes on un - a - ware. Take breaks in piec - es, scat - ters far, O sail - or, cling not to the wreck!

Refrain

hold the life - line, hold it fast; Your dan - ger then will soon be past. With-

- in your reach the line we throw; Take hold be-fore you sink be - low.